Shri Ashish Shrivastava learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Sanjay S. Agrawal learned Penal Lawyer for the State/respondent.

Heard both the counsel.

This petition has been filed by the petitioner against inordinate delay in disposal of the trial in Criminal Case No.100 of 1996 (State Vs. Ku. Nandita Choudhary) pending in the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, Kondagaon.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, a lady aged about 60 years, is facing trial for the offences punishable under Sections 409, 420 and 467 of the Indian Penal Code in the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, Kondagaon for the last more than ten years. Learned counsel further submits that the prosecution is protracting the case by not producing the witnesses. In support of this contention copies of the order-sheets of the trial Court have been filed along with the petition.

Having thus considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the material on record, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court ends of justice would be served if a direction is given to the trial Court for disposing of the aforesaid criminal case as early as possible preferably within a period of six months from the date of production of the copy of this order.
